There's a great flow to the accommodation to the ground floor, with front sitting room, then onto what is currently the play room, and then on again to the dining room - three separate zones, proffering a good deal of versatility.

The kitchen sits off the dining room and has a collection of fitted units and a good deal of worktop space, also plumbing for the washing machine, and door out to the rear.

There are three bedrooms and shower room to the first floor, with both the front and rear rooms having built in wardrobes.

Outside, we have parking for two, as well as a detached garage. There's also a charming garden to the rear, accessed from the dining room patio doors. Astro turf for easy maintenance, and decking for your evening tipples!
