This first floor apartment comes with a spectacular view across the very well manicured and extensive grounds belonging to The Garth, as well as directly over to the Wirral Golf Course together with the most enjoyable south facing aspect view.

With a wide pair of patio doors and a balcony to match, all seasons can be appreciated from within or from the balcony. This is a considerably spacious apartment from pretty much every consideration. Let's start with the entrance hall - nice and wide, traditional and with a cloakroom suite together with some extra useful storage. There is a sensibly sized, separate dining room with the room being open plan to what is a very generous main reception room. The kitchen is smart, separate from the dining quarters although comes with the ever useful service hatch. All more than adequate if not generous room sizes. The two extra large 'double' sized bedrooms are generously sized too. Terrific rooms; both with wall to wall wardrobes and both looking out to a considerably pleasant second open aspect view..

There is also good garaging included with the apartment sale.. Fabulous space is provided within the underground and secured parking facilities with two dedicated parking bays provided. (ample visitor parking stands on the forecourt of The Garth.

The property is leasehold with service charges currently at the revised figure of £212 per month paid quarter, with no ground rent and a long lease remaining. There'll be no onward chain to this property sale.
